today. We know you appreciated it. The rest of our session for the afternoon will be devoted to introducing new bills. If you have them, we will be open for awhile to receive your bills. Are there those who wish to prepare a little bit more to introduce a bill today? If you do, please let me know so we can hold this open a little longer. I know the press wants to visit with some of you in regard to the Governor's message and you may do so at this time if you like. We are not going to have any more General File today or any Select or Final Reading but we will be getting on that again Monday morning at eight o'clock, members. Remember, eight o'clock.
